General Conditions Of Sale

We are your partner in building the ideal trip for your group. We customize your itinerary according to your specifications.

› Registration

In response to your request for travel, you receive a document describing the route selected, a quote, contract and general conditions of sale. VOT reserves the right, before the final conclusion of the contract, to change the organization of the circuit depending on the availability of airfare and accommodations for travel dates. The full identity (name and first name) of each participant must be received no later than ninety (90) days before the departure date.

› Rates

VOT will send you a personalized quote showing the exact price per person, depending on your departure dates, services provided and those services paid by the group. Prices are based on economic conditions prevailing at the time of preparing the estimate. Any changes, due to fluctuating exchange rates, transport fares, royalties and fees for services provided, will result in a price change. We will notify you at the earliest and more than 30 days before departure. This price change will not exceed 7% of the package cost without your authorization. VOT has the right to adjust the price of the trip if a major fluctuation in the exchange rate (more than 5%) happens between the registration and 45 days before departure.

› Payment Terms

A contract is concluded when we receive a payment of $ 350 per person accompanied by the registration form group (duly completed and signed by the head teacher and the teacher in charge of the group) and selected quotes, and dated signed. At that point, the contract is concluded. The balance will be payable in 2 equal instalments at the same intervals. The last of these payments is payable eight (8) weeks prior to departure. In case of delay in payment, a fee of 1% per day will be imposed on the balance due. VOT reserves the right to cancel the contract for non-payment.

› Cancellation, refund

In case of cancellation of all the participants, VOT reimburses the amounts not committed to the service, by deducting an administrative fee of $ 100 per person.

If the trip must be cancelled by Voyages Objectif Terre, the total amount paid by the group is returned.

Any modification or adjustment to existing arrangements (change of dates, destination or spelling of names) will be subject to the availability and fees.

In case of the cancellation by an individual, whatever the reason:

- From the time of registration to 90 days before departure: retention of 30% of the package;
- Between 89 and 60 days before departure: retention of 60% of the package;
- Less than 59 days before departure: retention of 100% of the package.

It is important to note that refunds can take place only if the minimum number of participants which was priced for the package is reached.

Cancellation insurance is your only financial protection in case of an unforeseen and major event which requires a trip cancellation (illness, accident, death in the family, etc.).

› Withdrawal, repatriation

In case of the expulsion of a passenger by the group leader or interruption of the trip for personal reasons, Voyages Objectif Terre will not be liable to the passenger of any refund and / or compensation, whatever the nature. Voyages Objectif Terre reserves the right to refuse registration of a passenger who previously would have affected the welfare of a group with whom he traveled.

› Advertisement

Each participant agrees that Voyages Objectif Terre uses for advertising and promoting its name, its video image or photograph, as long as it's a group picture (no individual photo), in any form whatsoever and in any medium whatsoever, and in perpetuity without compensation.

› Insurance Assistance

Voyages Objectif Terre proposes subscription to travel insurance for each participant. This insurance covers most medical expenses, cancellation insurance and baggage insurance. Some limits apply to this coverage. A detailed list of what is covered will be given with your quotation. By signing this contract, the customer accepts at the same time that the insurance has been proposed. Voyages Objectif Terre cannot be held responsible if participants do not choose the insurance we offer.

› Claim

In the case where the group leader wants to take Voyages Objectif Terre in a claim for misfeasance or breach of contract, it must notify Voyages Objectif Terre by letter within one month after the trip and provide all documents evidence to establish the reality of the alleged injury. After this period, we will not consider any claim.

Voyages Objectif Terre is the guarantor of the organization of visits and responsible for proper performance, unless an event of force majeure, such as conflict, war, terrorist activity, strikes, change of timetable, accommodation or mode of transportation due to unforeseen events or if the act is attributable to the buyer. Voyages Objectif Terre disclaims all liability in cases where delay would be attributable to an airline.

When, after the departure of the group, one of the essential elements of the contract cannot be executed, Voyages Objectif Terre is committed to offering alternative benefits of equal value or refund the price difference between benefits provided and those that have not been provided.

› Paperwork

The passenger must be informed of administrative and / or health requirements for the execution of the trip. It is for the passenger to take note. The performance and costs resulting from the police formalities, customs and health requirements for your trip such as passport, parental permission, visa, medical certificate and vaccination card are the obligations of the passenger. We draw your attention to the fact that the regulations require a valid passport more than 6 months after the date of return. In addition, minors must imperatively be in possession of identity documents in their name. If the passenger fails to comply with the formalities and health requirements and is therefore unable to leave at the specified date, there will be no reimbursement.
